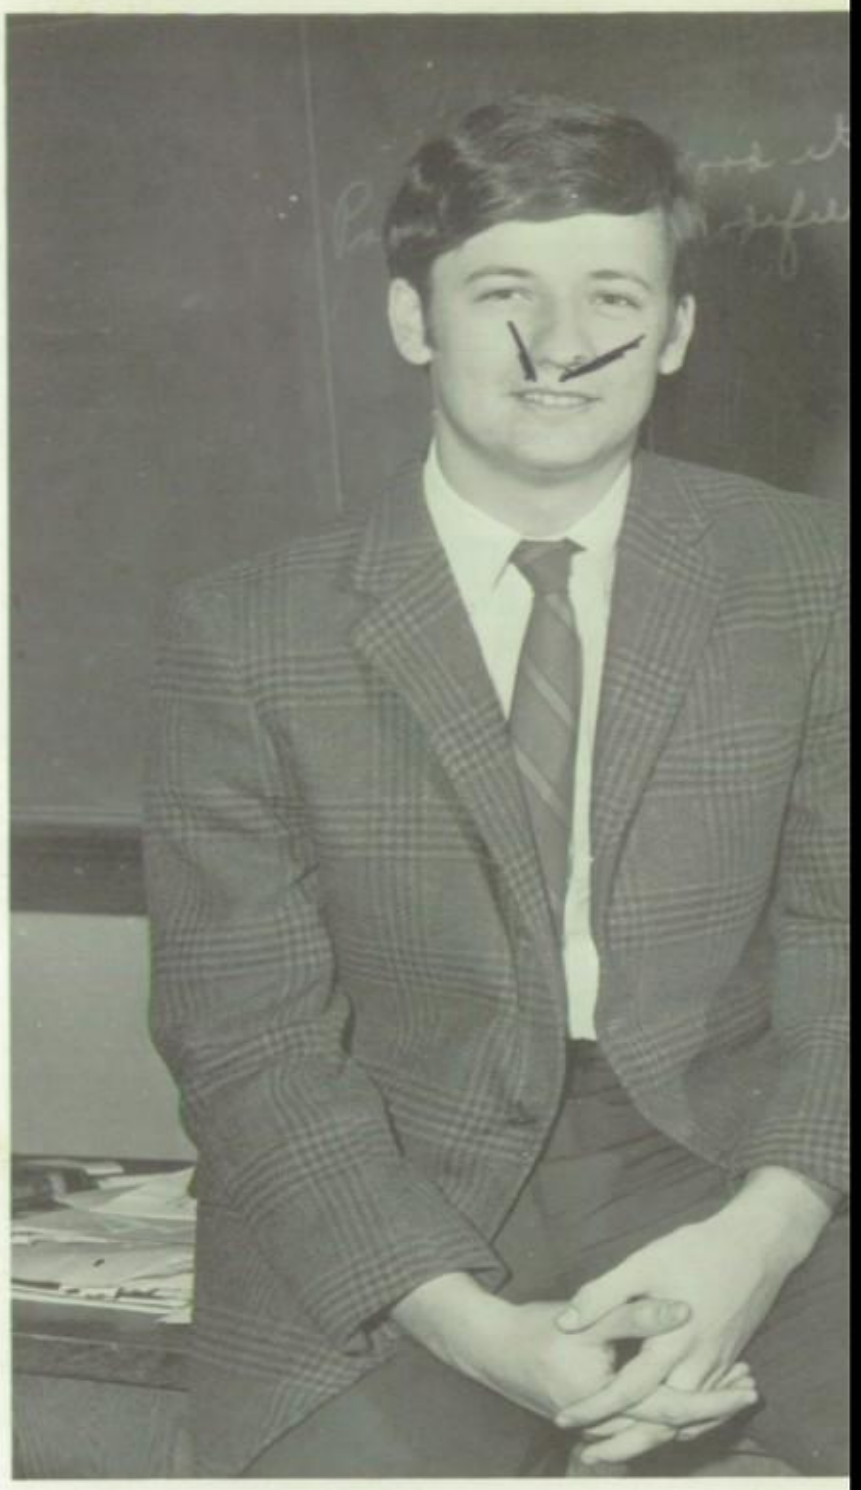
DEDICATION



The Class of 1970 wishes to show its appreciation to Mr. William Troutman and Mr. Paul Walters for all of their help by dedicating this volume of the Clairian to them.

Through their kind concern and constant guidance our class projects were completed and our goals were realized. They have deeply impressed us with the unselfishness with which they devoted their time and energy to make our efforts successful.

To you, Mr. Troutman and Mr. Walters, we say thank you, and we present you with this, the Clairian of 1970.

Mr. Walters

CLASS SONG

(to the tune of "Exodus")

The time has come when we must say good-bye,
Our last farewell to st. Clair High,
Our lives were filled with joy, but now it has to end,
We will never hear those halls ring out again.

Good-bye dear friends the time is drawing near,
This is the end of our high school years,
Now each will go his way, but we shall meet someday.
Then our hearts will feel the memories that are past.

Alpha Delta Pi, an honorary mathematics fraternity, was organized in 1932 by Mrs. Phoebe Tomko. Its main purposes are to stimulate interest in mathematics and to promote high ideals in the school.

In order to qualify for membership into this club, each student must attain a passing average for three semesters of mathematics.

Among the projects of the Alpha Delta Pi are the initiation of new members at Longo's and the creating of the Geome-tree during the Christmas season.

The Business Education Club, one of the largest organizations of our school, is open to all students in the Business Education Course who receive a passing average in all their subjects.

Along with keeping pace with the business world, this club does its share of boosting our school spirit.

BUSINESS TRAINING CLUB

The Business Training Club is one of our school's oldest organizations, being established in 1936 by Miss Margaret Ray. It is now under the able supervision of Mr. Harry Bertsch.

The B.T.C. is an honorary business club, its goal being to promote understanding of the ever-changing business world.

The annual initiation of new members, the B.T.C. Christmas tree, and the Business Machine Show are the club's yearly activities, and you can always count on the B.T.C. to stimulate school spirit through the sale of booster materials and the sponsoring of buses for athletic events.

FOOTBALL

The 1969-70 Saint Clair Area football team ended their season with a 5-3-2 record.

The Saints started off their season at a slow pace by losing their first two games to Mahanoy Area and Blue Mountain. They came back to defeat Marian, only to suffer their last loss of the season to West Hazelton. The rest of the Saints season seemed to be all down hill with a runaway over Schuylkill Haven, a 14 point comback by Central Columbia which resulted in a tie, a last second thriller over North Schuylkill, a 2nd half defeat over our arch rival, Minersville, another 14 point comeback by Tamaqua to tie, and a big upset victory over Lourdes of Shamokin.

Mike Bulino, St. Clair's scholar athlete, and Rick McCord were St. Clair's additions to the All-County Team.

BASKETBALL

The 1969-70 Saints Basketball squad must be remembered as one of the best teams to ever wear the "red & blue." Coach Wolff guided his team to an excellent 20-3 season and to the first-half championship of the league.

The Saints were led by co-captains Pete Delenick and Tom McGee who contributed to a great deal of the offensive scoring power. Matt Buletza was a fine playmaker, and Mike Bulino will be remembered as a strong rebounder and defensive stand-out. Junior sharpshooter Dave Bender rounded out the starting five who went on to humble opponent after opponent before many S.R.O. crowds.

Coach Bill Wolff also received outstanding performances from underclassmen Rich Filiac and Dave Delenick. The starters were supported by seniors George Stencovage, Norm Aggon, Steve Laychock, John Schleicher, and Marty Pastucka. These boys always put out to their utmost and will be remembered for all their crazy antics.

Sparked by a new coach, the enthusiastic spring workouts, and the thrill of a new season, the Saints invaded the baseball diamond with determination and a spirit to win. With hard work, desire, and team-manship, the boys contributed to a spirited season. Led by new coach Frank James, pitching ace Fran Docherty, and hitting star Mike Prokop, the Saints posted a 9-5 record.

The Saints hope for a bright season this coming year. They have six lettermen returning in Pete Delenick, our lanky first-sacker; Bill Angst, left handed spot hitter; Marty Pastucka, southpaw pitcher; Matt Buletza, who holds down the hot corner at third; Paul Fatula, husky right fielder; and Mike Prokop, our hustling catcher.

TRACK AND FIELD

The 1969 Saints track team posted a 7-3 record, which was the best of their short three year history. Coach Renaldi received outstanding performances from Mike Bulino and Steve Krisa in the hurdles, Tom Wigoda in the mile, and Joe Corby, Pete Szalku, Mike Kerick, and Jim Kaunas in the two mile relay.

Coach Weisacosky's burly men of muscle held their own with Lou DePauli and Tom McGee dominating the pole vault, Gene Benulis heaving the discus, and Mike Colna broad jumping 20 feet or more continually.

The highlight of the season was the District XI meet held in Allentown, where Steve Krisa, Mike Bulino, and Tom Wigoda each placed in their events.

The Saints' hopes of bettering last years' record depends on the performances of the returning underclassmen.
